Do you want to learn what start-up is all about?

Do you want to gather ideas about how to transfer science to business?

Or do you already have a unique business idea?

Then the Start-up and Entrepreneurship Workshop is right for you! In this 2-h workshop you will find out about support networks offered by CTI and other academic institutions for entrepreneurship, start-ups and young inventors. You will also meet the founders of two start-up companies coming from mobility and energy research.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity!
